

The Application Process for the Oral Examination of the Department of Psychology Graduate Degree Programs

Two weeks before the oral exam

- Download the Application Form for the Graduate Degree Examination from the department website. Fill it out and send it to the department to apply.

One hour before the oral exam

- Pick up the letter of appointment of the oral examination committee, oral examination fee, and receipt from the department office.

After the oral exam

- Submit the signed oral examination receipt, one copy of the Report of Thesis/Dissertation Defense, and the Degree Exam Grading Form (Thesis: three copies; Dissertation: five copies)

Precautions:

1. The application deadline for this department's thesis/dissertation:

1st semester: 1/15 at 5pm (in the case of a holiday, it will be changed to the previous working day);

2nd semester: 7/15 at 5pm (in the case of a holiday, it will be changed to the previous working day).

2. Oral Defense students who fail to submit an application two weeks before the oral test must pay the oral test fee (Master Thesis: 6,000 NTD; Ph.D. Dissertation: 8,000 NTD). The advance fee will be directly remitted to the student's account after verification.

3. The general evaluation form for the Report of These Defense (one copy) and the Degree Exam Grading Form (thesis: three copies; dissertation: five copies) should be printed by the student from the department website.

4. Committee members who take the high-speed rail (economy class only) or train must present the ticket stub. If an outside committee member drives to the school, please provide the school with the car color and license plate number to facilitate the application for a campus parking pass.
